3-minute spot & fundraiser for Christian audience

Have you heard that well-known Christian apologist, author, and speaker, Dr. Ravi Zacharias is coming to northern New England on May 7 2016?

Along with Dr. Zacharias, Lee Strobel, Randy David Newman, and others will be guest speakers at a one-time one-day all-day Northern New England Conference on Evidence for Christian Faith called WHY JESUS? 2016.

WHY JESUS? 2016 is intended to better equip Christians like you to think through the really tough issues of life and truth — and to make a credible and convincing case for your Christian faith.

With thousands of religions in the world today, how does anyone know what to believe? Why should anyone even care about religion? Aren't all belief systems basically true anyway? How do you answer questions like these?

If you're not quite sure just how to answer them, or others like them, this is the conference for you.

As you can see, WHY JESUS? 2016 is not designed as an entertainment event to tickle your senses. It's been designed as a training event to challenge your mind. But in a good and helpful way.

Along with the speakers, there will be workshops, exhibits, and music by the Oasis Chorale — a totally unique 40-member a cappella Amish/Mennonite singing group coming from ten states and Canada.

If you're a Christian, you'll meet and learn and sing together with thousands of other believers in what we're convinced will be a spiritually encouraging and even life-changing event.

Hosting a Christian conference on this scale in secular northern New England, though desperately needed, has simply not been considered likely or feasible — until now. But on May 7, 2016, it will be a reality.

Whether you live in northern New England or not, if you're a Christian your participation, prayers, and financial support are needed to make this event all that it can be for the glory of God.

Charging the low price of $15 per ticket is only feasible if folks like you and churches like yours help to underwrite the substantial costs of the conference.

Lead sponsor and coordinating agent is the AIIA Institute, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. So all contributions to the conference are fully tax deductible.

Your check should be made payable to "AIIA Institute," clearly designated for the 2016 conference, and mailed with your name and current address to:
